

BIG DEAL

(Music: nangoo - Lyrics: nangoo)

I speak out loud
What you don't dare
Look into my dark red eyes
And feel devil-may-care
I know all your wishes
All your appetites
Follow me, reward yourself
And you will shine in glamorous lights

It's dark insanity
The power of my obscurity
You can't hide, you can't fight
'gainst your avidity
Follow me 'til the end of time
One king, one crown, one reign
You're in this big deal with me

You can get what you want
Essence of eternal youth
Just encounter your own ego
There is no other truth
Sweet scent of fame and fortune
You can't escape from me
For thousands of years I play this game
Welcome to this lechery

It's the end and rebirth
From ashes and dust
Rises my kingdom of lust
I take possession of your mind
I take possession of your sense
In every fiber of your body I am in
